CARDINAL GIBBONS DRAWS THROG AS HE SAILS FOR ROME

He Is to Join Cardinals Farley and O'Connell in an Audience With the Pope.

His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons and his suite sailed to-day for Rome to pay a visit of state to the Pope. Cardinal Farley and Cardinal O'Connell have already started for Rome. The three prelates will meet in the Eternal City and go to the Pope together to discuss with him the state of the Church in this country. They go as Archbishops, whose visits to the Vatican used to be made every ten years, but the present Pope ordered that the visits be made yearly in order that the Church in America should be in closer touch with the papal authorities in Rome.

Cardinal Gibbons and his party sailed on the Prinzess Irene of the North German Lloyd line, and there was a great throng at the Hoboken pier to wish them goodspeed. The pier was elaborately decorated with the Papal, Irish and American flags. A large number of priests from all over the country were there and there was a strong delegation from Baltimore, where the Cardinal lives.

As soon as Cardinal Gibbons was established in his quarters aboard the liner—he was installed in the cabin of the skipper, Capt. F. von Letten-Petersen—he held an informal reception. A long line of visitors greeted him there and he had a word and a blessing for each. At its close he said to the newspaper men:

"My dearest wish is that the embargo with Mexico shall soon be settled and that peace may come to those people and to our people, upon whom my blessings rest."

In the suite of the Cardinal were the Rev. Louis Stickeny, his secretary; Rt. Rev. D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond; Rt. Rev. Mar. Shahan, Rector of the Catholic University, Washington, D. C.; Archbishop Gauthier of Ottawa; Rev. J. Lebeau, secretary to the Archbishop; Rt. Rev. J. J. Fox, D. D., of Green Bay, Wis.; Rev. J. A. Geissler of Two Rivers, Wis.; Rt. Rev. James Schwebach, D. D., and Rt. Rev. A. Ph. Kremer, both of Geneva, Wis., and Rev. William Reding of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Falls to Have Alimony Reduced.
(Special to The Evening World.)

WHITE PLAINS, May 5.—Supreme Court Justice Morchauer to-day filed an order denying the application of Henry A. Siebrecht Jr., son of a wealthy Fifth Avenue florist and a resident of New Rochelle, for a reduction of the alimony of $100 a month ordered paid to Mrs. Julia Siebrecht and has directed that the motion to punish Siebrecht for contempt of court in failing to make payments promptly be heard by Justice Koch at New Rochelle.

LEAPS FROM FERRYBOAT.

Passengers See Aged Man Drowned in Bay.

Passengers on the ferryboat Nassau, from Thirty-ninth street, Brooklyn, on its way to Whitehall street this morning raised a cry when a man with a pointed gray beard jumped from the upper deck. Capt. George Trotman stopped the ferry and William Allen, the mate and Joseph Pellini, a deck hand, lowered a small boat and rowed to where the man was in the water.

The old man was senseless when they got him on the ferry, but they worked over him till they reached the slip, and then sent a call to the Hudson Street Hospital for an ambulance. It was half an hour before Dr. Dugdale arrived. He glanced at the man, and pronounced him dead. In his pocket was a time card of the New York Central Railroad. On it was the name of Deutch.

MISS STRACHAN IN HOSPITAL.

Miss Grace C. Strachan, District Superintendent of Schools, and one of the best known women educators in the city, is ill in a hospital in Brooklyn of appendicitis. She is to be operated upon to-day.

At the home of Miss Strachan, No. 1115 Ocean avenue, Brooklyn, it was said last evening that she was taken to the hospital on Saturday night, but no one there would give the name of the institution to which she had been removed.

Collides With Boy at Play; Is Hurt.
As a result of his efforts to shield a playing boy from injury George Sauter, living at No. 72 Freshwater avenue, Queens, is in the German Hospital, Williamsburg, this morning, with a fractured skull. He may not recover. Sauter was crossing Myrtle avenue at Stockholm street in Williamsburg this morning when a small boy, pursued by another, ran toward him. Seeing that a collision was inevitable, Sauter reached forward to grab the boy, but in doing so stumbled and fell, his head striking the curbing.
